YOGA AND PILATES - Wellness Area rooftop terrace

Ashtanga yoga This method of yoga involves synchronizing the breath with a progressive series of postures. The result is improved circulation, a light and strong body and calmness of the mind.

Iyengar yoga has an emphasis on detail, precision and alignment in the performance of posture (asana) and breath control (pranayama).

Restorative yoga is all about healing the mind and body through simple poses often held for as long as 20 minutes, with the help of props such as bolsters, pillows and straps.

Vinyasa yoga Coordinates movement with breath to flow from one pose to the next. There is a strong focus on tension release.

Pilates Using Joseph Pilates' traditional floor technique and Springboard™ resistance equipment. Suitable for all levels.

Yamuna Body Rolling Hands on technique, using small therapy balls to massage bones & muscles, increasing blood circulation and dramatically relieving pain and stiffness in the spine and joints.

Gyrokinesis Floor Work gently works joints and muscles through rhythmic flowing movements that creates alignment through deep stretching, while opening the energy channels for a balanced body.
