Why stay indoors when you can enjoy all this property has to offer outside?

Across the property, you'll find pink bougainvillea and mature trees. It's truly like a resort oasis, and it's all yours to enjoy while on holiday.

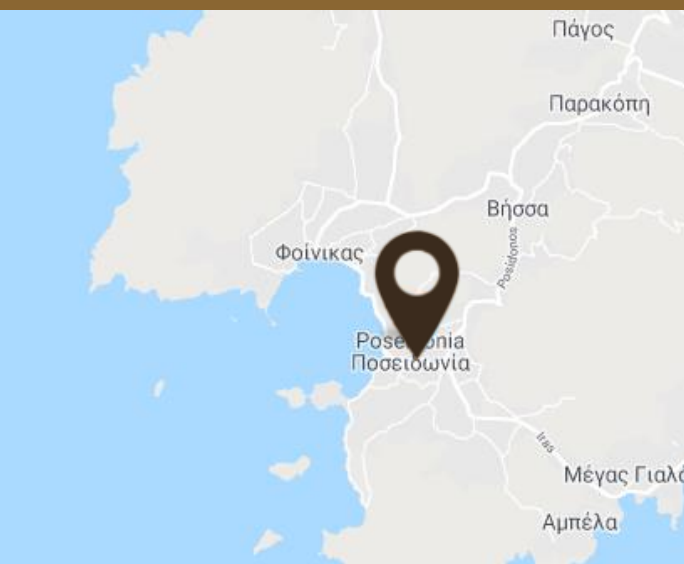

The expansive poolside terrace includes two open-air dining spaces, sun loungers, an outdoor grill, and a pool waterfall.

Details

The island of Syros is in the heart of the Cyclades in the Aegean Sea. Many of the island's houses are built in the typical Cycladic style of architecture. You'll find some extraordinary mansions with turrets, museums, and various cultural events throughout the year.

Its largest city is also its capital: Ermoupolis and is about 15 km away. There is a casino, cinemas, and various restaurants to enjoy. From Ermoupolis, you can take a ferry to the nearby islands of Mykonos, Tinos, and Dilos.
